Jew accepts Islam

Hadrat Sayyiduna Ebrahim Aajeri - may Allah be pleased with him - mentions that, “I was once indebted to a certain Jew. He came to me one day and said to me, ‘Display such a miracle to me which can prove to me the greatness of Islam and this would prove conclusively to me that the religion of Islam is greater than the Jewish religion. If you can display such a miracle to me, then I will gladly accept Islam.’

“I asked him whether he will really accept Islam and he replied that he would be prepared to accept Islam. When I saw his willingness to accept Islam, I then took his shawl and wrapped it inside my shawl. I then placed this inside a furnace which was used to bake and heat bricks and also entered this furnace myself. I then reappeared with the both pieces of cloth. All praise is due to Allah, not a single hair of mine was touched in this fire. When I looked at my shawl, it was untouched but his shawl which was inside mine, had burnt to ashes. When this person saw the truth of Islam, he immediately recited the Kalimah.”

Kindly bear in mind that there are two Saints who have the same name, but one is considered as Sagheer and the other Kabeer. (Uyunul Hikaayah)
